Central press on a pay of Rs 100 – 10 – 150, and was transfe to Mysore to be in Charge of the Branch press there. Further he was allowed to draw a personal allowance of Rs. 50/- which is to be absorbed as he earns his increments, on Consideration that he might not be put to much inconvenience for want of suitable quarters To allow him a further allowance, as proposed by the Supdt. G. P. is a mat for orders.

I submit that if the allow sanctioned by the Govt. is as a sort of Compensation for quarters not being provided for Mr. Venkatasubbarao, then the requirements of this case will be met by making the allowance a local allow therefore non-abonnable. If this is agd there is no need to take up the question of overtime allow in respect of which the orders of the govt. are quite clear.

Submitted to His Highness.

***

I submit for the gracious approval of His Highness the accompanying Final Note by the First Member of Council on the subject of the proposal to grant Over-time Allowance to Mr. B. Venkatasubba Rao, B.A., LL.B., Chief Foreman at the Branch Press at Mysore.

22 Nov 1920

Final Note by the First Member of Council.

6

Subject:—

Proposal to grant overtime allowances to Mr. B.Venkatasubba Rao B.A., LL.B., Chief Foreman of the Central Press doing duty in the Branch Press at Mysore.

S Mr. B.Venkatasubba Rao was appointed as Chief Foreman of the Central Press on a pay of Rs.100-10-150 with a personal allowance of Rs.50/- per mensem and was posted to be in charge of the Branch Press at Mysore.

X The Superintendent, Government Printing, recommends that Mr. B.Venkatasubba Rao may be given overtime allowance on the ground that he is not provided with free quarters, although he is required to be at the Press at all hours of the day for attending to work at the press.

R Under the Rules in force the Superior Officers of the Government Press including the Chief Foreman are not eligible for overtime allowances, and there is also no reason to make an exception in the case of Mr. Venkatasubba Rao. As, however, the personal allowance of Rs. 50/- per mensem sanctioned to him was really meant to be compensation for quarters not provided for, I am of opinion that the said personal allowance may be declared as a non-absorbable House Rent Allowance.

The Financial Secretary has no objection to this proposal and it may be graciously approved.

To

C. S. Balasundaram Iyer, Esq., B. ...,
Chief Secretary to the Government of Mysore,
Bangalore.

SIR,

I have the honour to state that as per Government Order No.2524-5/E.A.G.435 dated 19th June 1920 the Chief Foreman has been declared to be ineligible for Overtime Allowances. Formerly the Chief Foreman was provided with free quarters and allowed to reside near the Press so as to be available for duty at all hours of the day and night and for this reason, he was not granted any overtime allowance.

The present Chief Foreman Mr. B.Venkatasubba Rao who has been posted to be in charge of the Branch Press at Mysore has no free quarters and as he is required to be at the Press at all hours for attending to the increased volume of work of the Palace, University, Railways and other Departments, he may be kindly allowed to draw overtime allowances. His case is deserving of favourable consideration and I beg that Government would be pleased to grant my recommendation.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

D. B. Ramachandra Mudaliar
Superintendent,
Government Printing.
